Two Brothers Nabbed For Stealing "At Least One Million" From Loan Firm

WHITING, Ind. (AP) — The Liberty Savings & Loan Association is known as a family affair.

Over the years at least five members of the Chilla family have served it. Joseph J. Chilla Sr., longtime manager and chairman of the board, died in 1958.

His son, Joseph Jr., 53, became chairman. A younger son, Benedict A., 45, was secretary-treasurer.

Friday, the brothers were arrested by the FBI, accused of embezzling "at least $1 million."

Allan Gillies, the agent in charge of the Indianapolis FBI office, said the brothers had kept a secret ledger since 1939, stealing from savings accounts that were never entered in the association's regular books.

HAD SIMPLE SYSTEM

The system was simple, he said. They would try to spot savers who were not likely to disturb their accounts, enter their deposits in the secret ledger and calculate regular interest.

DIVORCE RATE IN ADAMS FAR BELOW STATE'S

For every five couples married in Pennsylvania last year, the courts dissolved one marriage through divorce.

The Division of Statistics and Records of the state Health Department reported Friday there were 71,835 marriages in the state in 1960 and 14,429 divorces, or a ratio of 4.9 to 1.

In Adams County there were 291 marriages for a rate of 5.6 thousand and 18 divorces for a rate of 0.3. The ratio between marriages and divorces here was about 16 to 1, far above the state average of 4.9 to 1.

INDIGNITIES LED

The biggest single cause of divorce came under the heading of indignities, for which two-thirds of all marriages were dissolved. Other frequently listed grounds were desertion and cruelty, which were mentioned on transcripts 20 per cent and 8.3 per cent, respectively.

Last year's 71,835 marriages were only 116 over the previous year's, the smallest difference ever recorded between two successive years, according to Dr. Albert E. Bailey, division director.

The marriage rates were higher than the state rate of 6.3 per 1,000 population in 43 counties and lower in 21, with Dauphin, Elk and Huntingdon matching the state rate exactly. Franklin County recorded the lowest marriage rate, 4.3, and the highest, 13.3, occurred in Susquehanna County.

TYPES OF CEREMONY

While the majority of couples, 84.6 per cent, were married in religious ceremonies, persons who had previously been married more frequently made use of a civil ceremony. Divorced persons dominated the civil marriage ceremony.

ACCIDENT TOLL DECLINING ON COUNTY ROADS

State police investigated 26 auto accidents during the last month bringing to 321 the number to which the officers at the local substation were called during the first 11 months of this year.

The record was lower than for the comparable month in 1960 when there were 34 accidents investigated and November, 1959, when they were called to 32 auto accidents.

The total however does not represent all of the accidents occurring in the county. Those in boroughs and townships which have police forces are usually investigated by the local police, which has reduced the number to which state police have been called over the last several years. Possibly 50 per cent of the accidents that occur are not investigated by any police, the participants settling the matter among themselves. Also included in that probable 50 per cent are one-car accidents where police are seldom called.

16 INJURED; 1 DEAD

Sixteen persons were injured in November's accidents, bringing to 180 the number hurt during the year. One person was killed, making the year's total 18. Damages totaled $16,475, making the total amount in the accidents investigated by state police from the local substation so far this year $257,475.

In 1960 there were 364 auto accidents investigated by the local state police during the first 11 months. There were 14 killed, 260 injured and damages totaled $261,340. The 1959 figures for the first 11 months of the year were 332 accidents in which 286 persons were injured and 23 killed.

State police made 187 arrests on traffic charges during November, an increase of three over the 184 listed for the same month in 1960. During the first 11 months of this year the officers made 1,646 traffic arrests, compared to 1,627 in the comparable period a year ago and 1,529 in the same length of time two years ago.

During November this year the officers also conducted 30 criminal investigations which resulted in 21 arrests.

DIVORCE RATE

Both bride and bridegroom were marrying for the first time in 77.4 per cent of the marriages. One party was marrying for the first time and the other remarrying in 12.3 per cent. Remarriages of both parties accounted for 9.7 per cent of the total.

The median age of brides was 22.1 years and of all bridegrooms, 24.7 years. Widows remarried at a median age of 49.8 years, while widowers remarried at a median age of 57.1 years. The median age for remarriage of divorcees was 33 years, but among divorced 33 years, but among divorced men it was 36.5.

The divorce rate in the state last year was 11.3 per 1,000 population, a rise of 3.9 per cent over the preceding year. In 41 counties, the rate was lower than the state average, with Centre County exclusively reporting no divorces.

The median age of males in divorces was 36.6 years, and the comparable figure for females, 35.6. Husbands who had been married only once were divorced at a median age of 36.1 years, with wives in the same category divorced at 31.2 years.

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Mayor Joseph H. Long, re-elected mayor of St. Clair by 21 votes, was in Pottsville Hospital today, recovering from exhaustion. He collapsed Friday while watching the recount of the vote that gave him victory over Democrat Benjamin Botzer.

The unofficial count after the Nov. 7 election showed the two men tied at 1,253 votes each, but a recheck of the ballot boxes Thursday and Friday gave Long the victory.

Pottsville's Democratic mayor also won re-election by a small margin. The official count showed Michael A. Close, the city's first Democratic mayor in history, winner by 33 votes over Republican Raymond J. Wachter.

Claims Goldfine Has Key To Vast Political Scandal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Industrialist Bernard Goldfine, who is in jail, holds the key to a vast political scandal being investigated by the Justice Department, a television news-caster says.

The newscaster, William H. Lawrence of the American Broadcasting Co., reported Friday night that the scandal might be the biggest since the Teapot Dome case in the 1920s.

The Justice Department had no immediate comment. Lawrence said evidence now before Justice Department investigators implicates both Democrats and Republicans. But, he said, the department has not decided whether to take the case to a federal grand jury.

NEED GOLDFINE AID

He said the government's ability to prosecute depends almost entirely on testimony and documentary evidence that might be given in court by Goldfine and his secretary, Mildred Paperman.

Lawrence added there were unconfirmed reports that Goldfine was ready to make full disclosure of his tangled financial affairs. The 70-year-old Boston textile man is serving a year and a day

CHURCH SEEKS CLOSER UNITY IN BEGINNINGS

By GEORGE CORNELL

Associated Press Religious Writer
NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Christians were looking backward today in search of new beginnings.

Basic and age-old church concepts were being examined anew as representatives of many denominations sought approaches to closer unity in faith and function.

They didn't expect to find agreement on all the fine points, but they were mapping the groundwork and the aims.

The wide-open examination of doctrinal and operational positions came as the General Assembly of the World Council of Churches went into its decisive phase.

KEY PROPOSALS

Key proposals were on the floor for action as churchmen of nearly every tradition and culture analyzed the issues.

A day-long succession of speakers moved to microphones Friday to contend over the varying subtle interpretations found in three major proposals—on mutual service, mutual witnessing to the Gospel and ecclesiastical unity.

Each of the documents ran to nearly 8,000 words.

Orthodox Metropolitan Athenagoras of Toronto, Canada, said the ecumenical movement was "not yet in a position to digest hard food" in terms of doctrinal matters. "There is no end to theological speculation."

More Candidates Report Expenses

R. J. Stonessier, Littlestown, spent $903 in his unsuccessful campaign for county clerk of courts, according to his expense account filed with the county election board. Of that amount $400 was a contribution to the Adams County Democratic Committee and $90 was for transportation. The remainder represented advertising costs.

A number of candidates reported they spent "less than $150" in their campaigns. They included Edwin L. Trimmer, for tax collector in Straban Twp.; Fred H. Swisher, for constable in Cumberland Twp.; Donald P. Rhodes, for tax collector in Straban Twp.; John C. Brown, for tax collector in Biglerville, and Mervin I. Rice, for county jury commissioner.

ASK CONGRESS FOR NIKE-ZEUS MISSILE FUNDS

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara have decided to ask Congress for money to start tooling up for production of the Nike-Zeus anti-missile missile.

Informed sources said today Kennedy and McNamara had agreed on this at their conference in Hyannis Port, Mass., last week. They conferred on the new military budget to be submitted to Congress next month.

It was understood a recent string of test successes influenced the decision. It represents a victory for the Army in its long battle to get the missile-killing system into production.

DELAYED START
The Kennedy administration, and the Eisenhower administration before it, had refused to allow even a start on limited production of the controversial anti-missile system pending additional tests.

Earlier this year McNamara told Congress there were "wide-spread doubts as to whether the Nike-Zeus system should ever be deployed."

Now, it has been learned, Kennedy and McNamara have decided there is enough evidence of indicated success to go ahead with limited production of long lead time items for the system.

A factor in the decision could have been what Pentagon sources said was firm information that the Soviets were making a strong effort to develop an anti-missile system of their own.

TO COST BILLIONS
The Army has contended that a start of production could cut from four to two years the expected time in which an anti-missile defense could be deployed around a limited number of cities.

In the past there have been estimates that it would cost $8 billion to $15 billion to provide adequate protection for most major production and population centers and important military bases in the United States.

The Army wants to start turning out components, including specially designed tools, for the super-sensitive radar used by the Nike-Zeus system to detect and track incoming enemy missiles.

Figures were not available on the scope of the expected budget request for Nike-Zeus production. The Army has been reported asking about $385 million.

Rob Man Of $10,000 In Cash, Jewelry

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The owner of a lumber company was robbed of $2,000 in cash and $8,000 in jewelry Friday night by three men who lay in wait for him at his home in the nearby Bucks County community of Penn Valley.

William Schermerling, owner of the Lumico Sales Co., told police he was attacked as he returned home with his wife, Gladys. He said he was confronted by the bandits as he opened the front door.

Schermerling said they asked for money, then punched him in the face. Then, he said, they ransacked the house, took the jewelry and cash, cut the phone wires and fled.

inary hearing, Benedict Chilla was charged with making a false entry in his October report to the association's board of directors. Gillies said he listed the savings accounts total at $6,603.104, failing to mention the hidden $1 million.

Joseph Chilla was charged with embezzling a $3,000 loan payment in September.

They were released on $5,000 bond each.

WOOLPERT OUT AS CAGE COACH

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Phil Woolpert, 46, one of the nation's most successful college basketball coaches, was shown the door Friday after just 15 games as coach of the San Francisco Saints of the new professional American Basketball League.

Kevin O'Shea, a two-time All-America from Notre Dame and the Saints' general manager, took over as the club's coach, George McKeon, club president, said O'Shea would run the team until a replacement for Woolpert is found.

O'Shea's debut Friday night was a success. The Saints beat the Chicago Majors 90-87.

McKeon announced Woolpert's departure Friday and said he resigned by mutual agreement.

But Woolpert said, "It wasn't very mutual. We were talking about the team and McKeon said he had decided some changes had to be made. It took a while before I realized he was talking about changing coaches. I thought at first he meant we were going to change players."

In other ABL games, Cleveland and Kansas City strengthened their holds on first place in the Eastern and Western divisions while Hawaii won its fifth straight after a 10-game losing streak.

Cleveland beat Los Angeles 113-92 for its ninth victory in its last 10 games. Kansas City drubbed Pittsburgh 121-99 and Hawaii defeated Washington 93-83.

Christmas Toys Destroyed In Fire

LEBANON, Pa. (AP) — Some $55,000 worth of Christmas toys and tobacco products were destroyed by a stubborn fire which burned a Lebanon warehouse Friday.

Lebanon and Pleasant Hill firemen battled the slow-burning blaze for eight hours.

State police fire marshal Michael Wisniewski, Reading, who set the damage estimate, said most of the destruction was caused by water.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Thieves took $30,000 worth of gift-wrapped cigars from a loaded trailer Friday then abandoned the vehicle with merchandise valued at around $60,000 still aboard. It was the second theft of cigars in two weeks from a trailer parked at the Northeast Trucking Depot of Service Terminal Corp.

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — With heavy police and security forces on guard, Syrians Friday voted on 1,876 candidates for 167 seats Parliament and passed on a provisional constitution for the new Syrian Arab Republic.

The election came just two months after the army revolt breaking Syria's three-year union with Egypt.

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP) — President Moise Tshombe left Friday for Brazzaville and Paris from where he will fly to Brazil to attend a Moral Rearmament Conference.

NEGRO STABS NURSE AFTER ASKING DRINK

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A 21-year-old nurse from Hazleton, Pa., admitting a youngster to her center city apartment after he appealed for a glass of water, was thanked for her kindness with a stab in the back.

The boy, described as a Negro between 11 and 13, fled the apartment of Miss Eleanor Yucabic with $16 she had in her purse.

Doctors at Philadelphia General Hospital, where she is employed in the nursery division, performed surgery to close a deep wound in her back, administered by a pen-knife. She also was stabbed in the front, police said.

ASKED FOR DRINK
Miss Yucabic said the youngster asked for a drink of water and she agreed to supply it. As she walked to the kitchen she said: "How about a glass of milk?"

"Fine," said the boy, then bumped into her.

"Why did you do that?" she asked.

"I want your money," he demanded.

Then Miss Yucabic saw the blood-stained knife, and handed up the money.

As he ran out he shouted: "Now don't you go calling the police. There's other boys outside and we got this place surrounded."

She told police she met the boy at a food market and he offered to carry her groceries home. She tipped him 75 cents. He returned shortly afterward, said the tip was too high and accepted 15 cents. Then came the request for water.

TWO MISSILES REGISTER FINE TESTS FRIDAY

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Atlas and Polaris, America's prime strategic missiles, scored important test successes Friday.

The Polaris, an advanced A2 model, zipped from a land pad and raced more than 1,000 miles, radioing back data on performance of warhead components, the major objective of the flight.

The Atlas zoomed 5,000 miles to operational early in 1962. It will have a range of 1,725 miles, nearly 400 miles further than the earlier A1, 96 of which are on patrol aboard six nuclear submarines.

The Atlas zoomed 5,000 miles to its target in another test to evaluate over-all performance of the big intercontinental range war rocket. The Atlas also ejected 32 small capsules containing potassium, sodium and other inflammable elements. As they hit the heat barrier of the atmosphere about 80 miles over the southern Atlantic Ocean, they erupted into brilliant blue, yellow and violet flares.

By studying the ionization trails created by the flares, scientists hope to learn much about how radioactive material will disperse in the atmosphere.

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — M. P. Niven, president of Carolina Manufacturing Co., feels the government check he received Friday will more than pay for $2,303 worth of handkerchiefs for the Army.

The check was made out for $999,976.95. Niven returned it to the Government Disbursing Office in Atlanta.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A hermit summoned from his cardboard and tree-branch hideout to answer a charge of vagrancy came prepared to tussle with the law.

Walter M. Harvey, 52, a bearded recluse, argued his own case in Municipal Court Friday. He explained to Judge Donald T. Barbeau he had been studying the vagrancy laws because he figured he'd be picked up.

Barbeau freed Harvey and complimented him on his presentation, which he said was better than some lawyers argue a case.

At their new destination the family found the van company had included a banana left on the kitchen sink, a pail full of garbage, and a dead cat.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Vasco Leitao da Cunha, a veteran diplomat, has been approved by the Soviet Union to serve as Brazilian ambassador to Moscow. Brazil and the Soviet Union resumed diplomatic ties last month after a 14-year break.

Presumably the Thais will press the Americans to make greater efforts to stop the Reds, particularly in South Viet Nam.

RESUME TIES WITH COMMIES

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The Congolese government resumed diplomatic relations today with the Soviet Union, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Charge d'affaires of the three Communist missions presented their formal credentials to the Foreign Ministry.

Acting Foreign Minister Marcel Lengema accepted them with cabinet approval.

The Congo government broke off relations with the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia in September 1960, immediately following the military coup of Gen. Joseph Mobutu.

Poland never established an embassy in Leopoldville after independence and first recognized the rump Congolese government set up in Stanleyville by Antoine Gizenga, who claimed to be the only legal premier.

SECRET DRAFT OF GRIDDERS IS RULED OUT

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The American Football League opened its draft today with Oakland getting the first choice because of its lowly status in the league standings.

Thirty rounds will have been held when Commissioner Joe Foss calls it quits about 5 p.m.

This draft is quite different from the one held in secret by the club owners a week ago, when such stars as Gary Collins of Maryland, Jim Saxton of Texas, Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State, Wendell Harris of Louisiana State, Ronnie Bull of Baylor, and Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis of Syracuse were selected.

NULL AND VOID
But Foss declared that one null and void and all the players picked turned loose to be fought over in the official draft today.

Foss got into an argument with Harry Wismer, owner of the New York Titans, over wiping out the secret draft and there were threats of the two trying to get rid of the other.

There were visions of a head-to-head meeting of the feudists at the draft here but Wismer isn't coming and neither are the other club owners. There will be no league meeting and no arguments about anything except whose going to get whom in the draft of college stars. That will be done by general managers, coaches and directors of player personnel.

NEW YORK (AP) — Marlene Dietrich has filed a $2-million damage suit against the McCall Corp.

Although details were not disclosed, a spokesman for the actress said Friday the action was based on an article — "The Dietrich Legend" — that appeared in the March, 1960, issue of McCall's magazine.

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — M. P. Niven, president of Carolina Manufacturing Co., feels the government check he received Friday will more than pay for $2,303 worth of handkerchiefs for the Army.

The check was made out for $999,976.95. Niven returned it to the Government Disbursing Office in Atlanta.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A hermit summoned from his cardboard and tree-branch hideout to answer a charge of vagrancy came prepared to tussle with the law.

Walter M. Harvey, 52, a bearded recluse, argued his own case in Municipal Court Friday. He explained to Judge Donald T. Barbeau he had been studying the vagrancy laws because he figured he'd be picked up.

Barbeau freed Harvey and complimented him on his presentation, which he said was better than some lawyers argue a case.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — "Pack everything" was the instruction given by a family that moved from here recently.

At their new destination the family found the van company had included a banana left on the kitchen sink, a pail full of garbage, and a dead cat.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Vasco Leitao da Cunha, a veteran diplomat, has been approved by the Soviet Union to serve as Brazilian ambassador to Moscow. Brazil and the Soviet Union resumed diplomatic ties last month after a 14-year break.

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — President Kennedy is expected to visit Venezuela in mid-December. Foreign Minister Marcos Falcon Briceño said today. The White House said Thursday the dates for the visits had not been settled.

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Premier Sarit Thanarat said Friday his government will begin talks with the United States soon on the Communist threat in Southeast Asia.

Presumably the Thais will press the Americans to make greater efforts to stop the Reds, particularly in South Viet Nam.

FINDS TRAVEL IS NECESSARY FOR TV SHOWS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — When Martin Milner signed up to hit the road, he didn't realize what a gypsy he was going to be.

Milner and George Maharis show their tricks on "Route 66," the cross-country TV saga on CBS Friday nights. Cross country is just what they do, for theirs is the traveling show since Barnum met Bailey.

To young Martin Milner, this presented a problem. He had a wife and two small daughters and wanted to have more contact with them than via long-distance telephone and postcards. So he packed the whole gang up and took them along.

SHOW IN CARLISLE
"Just got back from driving 10,000 miles on the last trip," said the actor at his Sherman Oaks home. "We did 13 shows in Butte, Pittsburgh (Pa.), Boston, Gloucester (Mass.), Baltimore, Carlisle (Pa.) and Philadelphia. Lot of driving, but everybody bore up well."

Everybody including wife Judy, daughters Amy, 3, and Molly, 10 months, a housekeeper and the dog.

"It worked out fine," said Martin. "The kids thrived on traveling, and I think it's good for them to experience new surroundings. They're a little young to remember any of it, but I think they'll get the spirit of adventuring."

ANOTHER CHILD
After a few days at home, Milner was hitting the road again, this time without his entourage.

"Judy is five months' pregnant with our next child," he explained. "I'll go to Dallas, where we'll film three shows before the holidays. As soon as the baby arrives and is ready to travel, we'll all get into the bus and start traveling again."

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Michael Sura, former Philadelphia procurement commissioner, Friday was sworn in as director of the Federal Mint here. The oath was administered by Judge J. Culen Ganey of the U.S. Circuit Court.

HANDWRITING

The Peterson system of handwriting is used in our elementary schools in Gettysburg. Each six weeks a representative from the handwriting company comes to our schools to collect the handwriting specimens for each child.

After the specimens are checked, a sheet is returned to the teacher which shows the good points as well as the bad features in the handwriting of the class.

Handwriting is more than a skill. It is also a means of communication and a way of expressing meaning. Whenever children of elementary school age write their ideas in a meaningful and purposeful way, this is real and important to them, this is written expression. Such writing involves thinking, talking, organizing what is to be said, and then using the skills of handwriting and spelling to get the ideas on paper or the blackboard. Such writing may take place at any time during the school day, and in relation to any learning experience. The older the child the more such opportunities are provided.

TEN YEARS AGO
Boy, 10, Killed As Homemade Cannon Bursts Near Harney: Experiments of a group of youngsters in firing a homemade cannon at Starnes' Dam, near Harney, Md., ended Sunday afternoon 4:30 o'clock with the death of a ten-year-old Littlestown boy.

Paul Leon Snyder, son of Paul R. and Olive C. Bedford Snyder, 31 Prince street, Littlestown, died a few moments after the "cannon" exploded and a piece of metal from the pipe being used as the cannon barrel pierced the child's heart.

A sixth grade student at the Littlestown public school, Paul had gone with his family on a Sunday trip during which they stopped at a cottage at Starnes' dam.

Three Fire Alarms Over Weekend: Gettysburg firemen were called three times over the weekend, but two of the calls were cancelled. The other, at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening, took them to the home of Earl Weaver, Baltimore pike, opposite the Hunt Avenue service station. Mr. Weaver was burning honeysuckle and the fire ignited a hollow tree. Firemen put it out with a booster line.

At 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning the firemen were called to the old Heintzelman farm near Fairfield, owned by Robert Geigley, but the call was cancelled, and the apparatus returned to the engine house. Fairfield firemen were also called. The only damage was by smudge from an oil heater.

A And P Employees To Share In Big Bonus: Employees of the Great Atlantic Pacific Tea Company throughout the country will share more than $2,000,000 in pre-holiday compensation this year, it was announced today by Ralph W. Burger, president of the food chain.

Every employee with as much as six months' service will receive a part of the annual fund voted by the company's board of directors. Distribution is scheduled for December 14.

Teen-agers Get Part-time Home At Moose Lodge: The local Moose lodge Thursday night voted to give use of its second floor meeting room as a youth center for a month's trial period.

Discussion prior to the vote indicated that members of the Moose are in agreement with the need for a teen-age center in the borough and willing to cooperate in the project.

The members agreed that "what the youngsters need most is a room that will really be their own, a place they can fix up and change around to their own satisfaction, a place where they can come and go as they wish."

95 Acres Sold To Government: The United States government has purchased two additional properties, totalling approximately 95 acres, in Liberty township at the Beard Lot-Raven Rock tunnel project, according to deeds recorded at the office of the county register and recorder.

The government paid $1,100 for a 31.68 acre plot purchased from David and Elsie C. Treasler and $1,000 for two tracts totalling approximately 64 acres purchased from Irvin Clark. A previous deed for five acres of land, for which the government spent $100, was filed several days ago.

Code Violators: The following Adams countians were recently arrested in York county by state police for motor code violations: Wilson Miller, Idaville, overweight; and Eugene B. Miller, Gettysburg, improper passing.

If you have the cover-type of teakettle, you can use it for melting chocolate. Have some water simmering in the kettle, after removing the cover and fitting a small bowl into the cover's space, and put the chocolate in the bowl. Use a narrow rubber spatula to get every last drop of chocolate out of the bowl. You can melt chocolate directly over extremely low heat, but it has to be stirred and watched because it scorches easily.

Today's Talk

HEART HUNGER
I always pity the one who hungers from lack of food. I know what he feels. There were times when I went through the same thing. But I pity, sympathize with, and understand to a deeper degree the one who hungers in his heart!

Heart hunger for the lack of spiritual food and satisfaction saddens the very soul and casts a gloom greater than ever Nature created about one.

It is better for a city to feed its heart hungerers than for it even to feed its physical hungerers. Of course it should feed both, for a city is its brother's keeper quite as much as the individual.

Ever since the beginning of time every race of men has hungered after that which might lighten its heart and make its spiritual load less heavy and burdensome.

Material wealth is poverty indeed to him who starves for the life-giving elements that put blood into his soul.

Sometimes I ponder on what Christ would think of some of today's sermons, and of the attitude of many who listen, should He make a tour of the edifices built and carried on in His name. I wonder how many clergy and parishioners would note this gentle figure should He enter by a front or side door and just sit down as a common worshiper.

I wonder if He would go away, as do many, still hungering and thirsting after that which their souls most crave.

The institution of the Church is a noble and beautiful one. But so many times I have gone away from it still very heart hungry.

This world needs so many more in its busy life to divide their loaves of bread and trade a part in for "white hyacinths" to feed hungry hearts and souls.

PROGRESS
Use your eyes and use your brain; Every day sees something new. Someone welds a stronger chain. Someone finds a way to do this or that in quicker speed. That or this in better style. Somewhere for the things we need. Men are working all the while.

Science throws the old aside; Thinkers find a newer plan; And when it is proved and tried All the world is changed for man.

Just a thought, and methods old Are abandoned for the new; Something else is being sold Which a thinker learned to do.

Far from finished is the earth; Far from done the work of man. Future men will come to birth Doing what we never can. Nor for long will life remain In the old accepted groove; Every record mortals gain. Soon another will improve.

PILOTS PLANE INTO GORGE
NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—"The situation called for an ejection, but I just couldn't justify it with myself. I had no idea where the craft would fall, so I stayed with it."

And so Lt. Edward M. Methot, his F100 Super Sabre Jet aflame, steered the craft away from this heavily populated area and into the wall of the 150-foot-deep Niagara River Gorge Friday. Methot ejected himself from the plane seconds before it crashed and exploded. He came away virtually unharmed.

Just before thundering into the gorge, the plane passed between the framework of the new International Bridge and a vertical frame that is to support the roadway.

It narrowly missed 15 workmen standing on the framework. The plane took off on a routine navigation flight from Niagara Falls Air Base, five miles from the crash scene. While it was climbing to an altitude of 1,500 feet wingman Romulo Cochi, in another plane, spotted the fire and alerted Methot.

YOUTH ADMITS SHOOTING BUS DRIVER IN HEAD

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—A 17-year-old boy told police Friday night that a shotgun he was holding accidentally discharged and wounded a bus driver Thursday.

Sam Jones Jr. of Buffalo, said a neighbor gave him and two other boys the shotgun and two birdshot cartridges, ordered them to "go out and get him some money," and threatened them with bodily harm if they failed.

One of the other youths, a 14-year-old whose identity police declined to reveal, has been arrested, and a warrant has been issued for the third boy, Jones' neighbor, Joseph Cutis, was also being held by police.

Jones said he and his companions banded on the door of a bus driven by Raymond Mandell, 51, and ordered him to open it. When the driver ignored them, Jones tapped the windshield with the muzzle of the shotgun to get his attention, and the gun accidentally discharged.

Mandell, who was reaching down for a wad of money at the time the gun went off, suffered scalp wounds. Most of the birdshot was deflected by a metal coin box next to Mandell.

Jones has been charged with attempted first-degree robbery and first degree assault.

STRIKE HITS 515 STORES
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fresh meat and seafood departments remained closed today in 515 A & P, Food Fair and American Stores supermarkets in Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware, as a strike of meat cutters continued.

Only pre-packaged meats and fish, most of it frozen, were available. Hundreds of thousands of shoppers were expected to be affected for the weekend.

A spokesman for the three chains said that the stores would remain open today and next week, at regularly scheduled hours. He added that prepackaged meats would be exhausted if the walkout "goes beyond the weekend."

Representatives of the Philadelphia Food Store Employers Labor Council and the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers held bargaining sessions Friday with a federal mediator. More meetings are set for today.

About 1,000 meat cutters struck 150 A & P stores Friday morning. The other two chains refused to permit their meat cutters to work, thus idling 3,000 more. This action was taken in line with an employer policy that a strike against one chain was a strike against all.

THE MAKING OF THE PRESIDENT, 1960
Mrs. W. R. Schubart
The presidential election of 1960 is old hat. We have moved in our thinking far beyond the bitter Kennedy-Nixon contest by virtue of subsequent national events and problems. Why, then, is "The Making of the President, 1960" by Theodore H. White, a best seller of nonfiction and a Book-of-the-Month Club choice?

The fact is that Mr. White has recorded a picture of all political campaigns; he describes the acts, the accidents and the decisions that create an American president, and he does it in terms that we recognize. We know his characters; we remember them well.

Therefore the book has immediacy. It is real, fascinating, readable and highly dramatic. Chapter I pictures election night scenes as the returns begin to come in and the candidates read the score boards at their headquarters. Immediately the book is electric with suspense, and we chew our nails again as if we did not know the outcome.

DESCRIBES CONVENTIONS
Then the pace slackens as Mr. White turns back to more than a year before the election to explore the planning and ambitions of the seven men, Humphrey, Symington, Stevenson, Johnson, Kennedy, Nixon and Rockefeller, who originally sought to be candidates.

The first half of the book carries the election story through the Democratic and Republican conventions of the summer of 1960. Part II is a vivid account of the campaign trail as Mr. White followed both men around the country. Logic, he says, is dismissed with the end of the conventions, and from there on in "the issues become instruments of emotion."

The physical exertion demanded is incredible. There is no privacy nor time for the reflective thinking which should accompany the application to so great an office.

Many public and private events are enumerated and their influence on the voters interpreted. Kennedy, for instance, was forced by a long session of Congress to delay opening his campaign. Nixon lost time and was drained by the accident to his knee and necessary hospitalization. The Catholic religion was questioned; the imprisonment of Martin Luther King presented a challenge to be met or ignored. TV's power had to be reckoned with, and the famous debates made tremendous impact. There was the last minute use of President Eisenhower, and the late surge of the Republican party.

Nixon emerges as a rather pathetic figure who tried to make his way alone, refusing to see the press, ignoring his strategy board. His speeches were personal and folksy and he rested his appeal on experience and the Eisenhower record of peace and prosperity. Kennedy met the religious issue head on, noted the dangers of an uneasy peace, and called for a new philosophy of international politics.

Whatever the reader's political conviction is, he cannot help being impressed by the story of the 1960 election. At once vulgar and noble, it is above all an American story. Mr. White's skillful writing makes it a dignified story, despite the squalor and illogic and confusion of low level politics. The squabbling of two

Silent Sphinx Entangled In $14,000 French Bribe

CAIRO (AP)—Egypt's famed sphinx, silent and aloof for 4,500 years, has been caught up in a spy case—by talking.

Cairo newspapers say an Egyptian official arrested with 12 others in an alleged French spy ring took a $14,000 bribe to help a French firm get the contract to rig the ancient monument and the pyramids for sound.

Since April Egypt's biggest tourist attractions in the desert outside Cairo have been relating their centuries of history with recorded voices to a musical accompaniment and shifting colored lights.

Mount Loses Thriller To Friars 65-59; Hosts Shippensburg Tonight

Any doubt that Jim Phelan has another powerhouse basketball team at Mt. St. Mary's College was dispelled Friday evening when the Mountaineers threw a tremendous scare into highly-favored Providence, NIT champions, before bowing 65-59 in the waning moments before 3,300 fans on the Friars' floor.

A cold 10-minute spell in the early minutes of the second half during which they failed to sink a field goal proved fatal to the Mountaineers. The Mount held a 33-26 advantage after 2:49 of the last half and then went scoreless from the field until only 7:05 remained while Providence reeled off 23 points to take a 49-37 lead. During that period the only points by the Mount were a single foul by Dave Samuels, a pair of charity tosses by John O'Reilly and another foul by Saylor.

The courageous Mountaineers regained their stride after their letdown and battled back slowly, closing the gap and finally overtaking the Friars 56-55 on a layup by Eddie Pfeiffer with 3:07 minutes remaining.

SIZZLING FINISH
Capt. John Hadnot, 6-10, tied the count with a free toss and then John Thompson, 6-11 Sophomore and the game's top scorer with 23, converted a pair of free throws as Providence went ahead 58-56. Dick Saylor knotted the score at 58-58 with two conversions as the clock showed 1:54 remaining.

Thompson broke the stalemate with a corner shot and Vin Ernst sank two free shots as the Friars moved ahead 62-58 with 1:13 left. Eddie Pfeiffer netted one of two free tosses for the Mount and in the final 45 seconds the Mountaineers were forced to commit fouls in a desperate effort to secure possession. A pair of fouls by Jim Stone and one by Ernst completed the scoring.

The game was a nip and tuck affair throughout the first half. A pair of goals by Dave Maloney sent the Phelan-men ahead 13-10 after 11:05 of the first half. The Mountaineers led the rest of the half although the Friars tied the count at 17-17, 21-21 and 23-23. Tally and Maloney landed twin pointers plus a foul by the former for a 28-23 half time margin.

Providence has been ranked as one of the strongest teams in the nation and its coach, Joe Mullaney, tabs his current squad as the best in the school's history.

TALLEY LANDS 19
Thompson was easily the star for the Friars, being credited with 16 rebounds in addition to his top scoring. Captain Dick Talley was the top point-producer for the Mount with 19.

Tonight the Mountaineers will attempt to rebound when they meet Shippensburg State College at Emmitsburg. Game time is 8 o'clock.

EAGLES PICKED OVER STEELERS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles are a three-point favorite to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers in their curial National Football League game here Sunday.

The Eagles, resting in second place in the NFL's Eastern Division with an 8-3 record, need a win to keep them in title contention. They trail the New York Giants by one game and meet the Giants next Sunday at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia beat Pittsburgh in the first meeting of the two teams this year, 21-16. But the Steelers have won the last four games against Philadelphia at Pittsburgh.

LAYNE OR BUKICH
Quarterback Bobby Layne missed that first contest because of an injury but will be ready for Sunday's clash. However, Steeler Coach Buddy Parker said he will not decide on starting Layne until game time.

If Layne doesn't start, the choice will be Rudy Bukich, who led Pittsburgh to four wins in five games during Layne's time on the injured reserve list.

Crimson Satan winner of $180,819 in the Garden State, was bred by Peter W. Salmen Sr. of Detroit at his Crimmon King Farm in Lexington, Ky. His son, Pete, 23, manages the farm.

Pick Davis For Heisman Trophy

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pitt's football team has named Syracuse's Ernie Davis, the 1961 Heisman Trophy winner, to its all-opponent team.

Davis heads a backfield which also includes quarterback Galen Hall of Penn State, halfback Roger Holdinsky of West Virginia and fullback Ronnie Bull of Baylor.

The rest of Pitt's selections were:

Les Traver, Notre Dame, and Larry Wilson, Miami, at ends; Bill Winter, West Virginia, John Meyers, Washington, and Marshall Shirik, UCLA, at tackles; Nick Buoniconiti, Notre Dame, Herb Adkins, Baylor, and Jim Skaggs, Washington, at guards; and Jay Huffman of Penn State at center.

COLLEGE AND AAU FUSS MAY HURT OLYMPICS

By W. B. RAGSDALE JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—Colleges and the Amateur Athletic Union must solve their bitter dispute over control of amateur athletics if the United States is to have a winning team in the 1964 Olympics.

This is the message Kenneth L. Wilson, president of the U. S. Olympic Association, had Friday night for the AAU Convention. He spoke at a banquet session. The five-day convention ends Sunday.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association has threatened to boycott AAU events unless it is given more say in international affairs. The AAU is the U.S. representative on a majority of the international federations controlling Olympic sports.

NEED BEST TEAM
Stressing the importance of athletics in the cold war propaganda battle with the Soviet Union, Wilson said it was regrettable that two major amateur athletic groups "are in disagreement over administrative techniques."

"In this present world of tension and conflict," he said, "the general excellence of a nation tends to be judged by its general vitality. The most potent demonstration of a nation's physical prowess can be made at the Olympic games and we should not be content to merely send a 'representative' team, but must make a vigorous and unstinting effort to send the best team."

Wilson's remarks came shortly after the AAU Track and Field Committee spent some three hours in heated discussion of plans by the National Collegiate Track Coaches Association to form a separate federation to govern track in the United States.

AAU IS BLAMED
Charles D. Werner of Penn State, NCTCA president, told the committee if the AAU had given the NCAA the representation it asked on its International Affairs Committee the issue never would have been raised.

The plan would divide power now centered in the AAU among a number of groups, including the AAU, NCAA, military service representatives and other organizations.

Track coaches, in a mail vote, "have expressed almost unanimous approval" of the plan to create the new federation, Werner said.

Under the new federation, he said, the AAU would maintain its present jurisdiction over sports in the United States, but the representatives on international bodies probably would come from the NCAA.

NEW OXFORD 39-28 VICTIM OF NORTHERN

New Oxford High battled invading Northern of Dillsburg to a 25-25 deadlock after three quarters but then failed to land a single field goal in the last quarter as it lost its opening basketball game on its new floor Friday evening to the Polar Bears 39-28.

The Colonials led 9-8 at the end of the first period, fell behind 16-15 at half time and then gained a 25-25 tie at the close of the third round before collapsing in the last quarter.

New Oxford's scoring in the fourth stanza was limited to three free shots while 10 tries from the field all missed their mark. Meanwhile the Bears pulled away with 14 points.

Baker and Harlacher were the big guns for Northern with 13 and 12 points, respectively. Dick Higginbotham topped the Colonials with eight and Craig Dutera and Gary Smith added six and five.

The New Oxford reserves salvaged part of the program with an easy 42-23 triumph.

Next Friday New Oxford will play at Dover.

TWO ALL-STAR GAMES TO END NEXT SEASON

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The double All-Star game program, unwanted by the baseball club owners ever since its inception three years ago, will terminate with the 1962 season.

This was made evident Friday when the American League halfheartedly endorsed a second midsummer spectacular next year but warned in no uncertain tones that it would be the last.

A league announcement, conveyed by public relations director Joe McKenney, read tersely: "The American League voted to participate in the second All-Star game in 1962 but it will not entertain any request for a second All-Star game again. A committee will be appointed to consider an alternate program which will benefit the major league players and benefit baseball."

OVERWHELMING VOTE
The National League acceptance of the request for two games by the players, was given in a much more cooperative vein.

The players had based their request on a vote of the body which favored the continuance of the two-game setup, 491 to 49.

Commissioner Ford Frick gave some enlightenment as to why the owners decided to go along with the players one more time.

"This is a partnership venture," Frick explained, "and consequently if one partner wants to have nothing to do with it, that's all there is to it. I would have no vote. It is completely up to them."

Frick persistently has opposed the two All-Star game system. It is his belief a second game detracts from the importance of the event.

After being held on even terms in the first period, the Delone Catholic High dribblers unleashed a strong scoring attack in the final three periods to whip Bermudian Springs 67-29 Friday evening on the Bermudian court in the opening game for both schools.

Bermudian held the Squires to an 11-10 advantage at the end of the first quarter but the Squires took complete command in the second frame with an 18-point barrage to lead 29-13 at half time.

The final two periods were dominated throughout by Delone. Jim Livelsberger led Delone with 13 points with Dick Neiderer and Bob McClintock following close behind with 12 each. Tom Hardy collected six goals for Bermudian.

The Delone reserves also won the preliminary 44-26. Bermudian will host South Western on Monday. Delone plays at Francis Scott Key on Wednesday.

Bullets Host Rangy Diplomat Cagers Tonight

A rangy Franklin and Marshall College basketball squad will help the Gettysburg College cagers usher in the new season tonight on the Eddie Eddle Plank gymnasium floor.

The Diplomats' starting lineup is composed of five lettermen including the following: Herb Gray 6-1, Gerry Huber 6-5, Dick Lantz 5-11, Jim Leslie 6-3, and Don Pappas 6-1.

Only two members of the squad are less than six feet.

The Diplomats freshmen oppose the Diplomats yearlings in the preliminary at 6:45.

On Monday the Diplomats will play their final home game before the Christmas holiday layoff when they entertain Dickinson. The freshman teams will clash in the preliminary.

BOWL BERTHS TO BE FILLED LATE TODAY

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
The four available bowl berths were expected to be filled today, including the still open spot in the Rose Bowl, Alabama went after a perfect season and Army met Navy to close out the regular 1961 college football season.

Both the Rose Bowl berth and Army-Navy winner were to be determined in Philadelphia Stadium. Tom Hamilton, commissioner of the Big Five, which is the host to the Rose Bowl, was expected to name Minnesota as an opponent to UCLA after he watched his alma mater, the naval academy, play the Cadets.

The three other berths included Alabama's expected announcement that it will play Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl, and Mississippi's acceptance of a bid to meet Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

BAMA VS. OLE MISS
Alabama, now 9-0, plays Auburn, while Ole Miss, 8-1, goes against Mississippi State. Rice, which plays Gotham Bowl-bound Baylor, will get the vacant Bluebonnet Bowl spot opposite Kansas if it wins. Otherwise, Auburn could squeeze in.

The Crimson Tide, by winning, can also grab a share of the Southeastern Conference title with Louisiana State, and probably wind up as the national champion, as determined in the final Associated Press poll next week.

Minnesota cleared the decks for the Rose Bowl bid Friday night within the workings of its own administration, and that is believed to be all that Hamilton needs to know. The Gophers, who finished last week with a 7-2 record, lost to Washington in last year's granddaddy of all bowls.

There are a few other bowl-bound teams winding up regular season play today. Colorado, ranked sixth in the current Associated Press poll and already ticketed to play Louisiana State in the Orange Bowl after winning the Big Eight title, plays Air Force. Georgia Tech, heading for a battle against Penn State in the Gator Bowl, meets Georgia and Miami (Fla) gets its last full-scale activity before a Liberty Bowl tussle with Syracuse, in its game against Florida.

DETROIT GETS SAM JONES FOR TWO PLAYERS

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Detroit has bolstered its fine pitching staff by adding the veteran Sam Jones from Houston in return for Bob Bruce and Manuel (Pete) Montego, a pair of young right-handed pitchers.

"I expect to use Jones both as a starter and on relief," said Manager Bob Schefling of the Tigers. "I was a coach with the Chicago Cubs when Jones pitched a no-hitter for them and I know all about him."

With Jones to back up Frank Lary, Jim Bunning, Don Mossi, Paul Foytack and Ron Kline either as a starter or in the bullpen, Schefling appears well equipped to give the New York Yankees another stiff battle for the American League pennant.

The Tiger-Colt swap was the most important of three baseball deals completed Friday.

OTHER DEALS
In a trade between Baltimore and the St. Louis Cardinals, two men who played on the same club at Rochester last summer traded uniforms. Johnny Kucks, 28, right-handed pitcher formerly with the New York Yankees and Kansas City, moved to St. Louis after a 10-13 season at Rochester. Shortstop Ron Kabbes, a .264 hitter at Rochester, moved from the Cardinals organization to the Orioles.

Cleveland acquired infielder Mel Roach for its Jacksonville farm of the International League in a swap that sent two young catchers, Ely Church and Lou Holdener to the Chicago Cubs' organization.

Birds Will Lay More Eggs And With Sounder Shells If They Are Given A Rest

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

Birds will lay more eggs and eggs with sounder shells if they are given a rest before starting a second year of production. How to get some of the higher producing strains to take this rest is more difficult than it was some years ago. This is because they have the urge to lay. It is best to have a planned program to follow so that all the birds will go into a molt and rest at the same time. The first step to take is to cull the flock hard so that only good birds in production will be kept over. This should be done early in November.

Then discontinue the use of artificial light and take water and feed away from them for awhile. Replace the water toward evening and then keep it before them at all times.

ON SHORT RATIONS

The birds may have to be kept on short rations until a molt is well started. Then put the birds back on full feed. The lights should be turned on again about six weeks after this program was started. Normally in another couple of weeks the birds will be back in good production.

About two weeks after the lights are turned on one should remove from the flock all birds that do not show evidence of soon getting back in production.

The birds in second year lay will produce larger eggs than in their first year and may lay more eggs with abnormal shape and shell.

SILO UNLOADERS

A silo unloader has many advantages. The one we all look for is saving of labor. It saves the daily (or twice daily) chore of climbing up the slippery silo ladder and then breaking out back throwing out the silage. In addition, cows like the fluffy silage from an unloader better than the chunks we throw out with a fork. Here again we actually save labor, since she doesn't toss the silage out of the manger like she does chunks or frozen material. This saves cleaning time. With a timing device, and an overload switch for protection in case of clogging, the unloader may be turned on, then forgotten while we go about our other chores. Another advantage is that the smooth surface left by the unloader protects against spoilage during hot weather and periods of low rates of feeding.

If more than one silo is used on the farm, the unit must be transferable from one silo to another. Most unloaders are easily dismantled for this transfer. If the silos are close together, an overhead trolley can be used to move the entire unit. Many unloaders have attachments so they can be used in silos of more than one diameter.

OPERATE MINE FOR TOURISTS

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (AP) — The prospect of an anthracite mine operation for tourists was a step closer to reality today.

Dr. John M. Konopka, Shamokin dentist, said Thursday the project was given encouragement Wednesday by C.A. Gibbons, president of the Susquehanna Coal Co., which operates the Glen Burn Collieries.

Konopka is also executive director of the Pennsylvania Anthracite Park Authority, which has been pushing the coal mine plan.

Under the plan the mine would continue to produce anthracite coal commercially and at the same time be open for tourists desirous of seeing a deep coal mine in actual operation.

all the work with no effort on your part. Periodic lubrication of fast-moving heavy-duty bearings, and at the same time a general inspection of the unit, will help prevent costly, time-consuming breakdowns. And, of course, you will have to remove doors as the level of the silage is lowered.

Electric heaters are a convenient and economical installation for supplying supplemental heat.

They can be used about the farmstead for pump protection, insurance against water pipe freezing, for the comfort of animals and workers, for easier starting of the car, truck, or tractor through the use of headbolt heaters and any similar type services.

Infrared heat lamps give a sense of comfort to the operator. Hung in the milking parlor or over the workbench they provide necessary heat without the expense of warming the room.

Heating cable or tape can be used to wrap water pipes, to melt snow on walks, sidewalks, driveways and to warm the floor for animal brooders.

Immersion heaters serve to keep stock tanks from freezing or to warm drinking fountains in the exercise yard.

December 25th as the Nativity December 25 as the Nativity date, although the Eastern churches claimed January 6 as the proper date. Other factions of belief hold that Christ's birth date should be observed as variously as April 20 . . . May 20 . . . March 29 and even September 29.

REPORTS FEED GRAIN CHANGE

A recent change in 1961 feed grain program provisions now permits turning of livestock on diverted acreage, J. Glen Miller, office manager of the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, announced today.

He explained that the action was taken to permit farmers to carry out customary after-harvest salvage through turning livestock onto cropland acreages from now until the end of the year without being put to reasonable expense for protective fencing in instances where diverted acres might be in the same field.

The authorization has been extended to all 1961-program diverted acreages in order to treat all participants in the program on the same basis. In most areas, the important period of protection of the diverted acreages has passed, and there is little likelihood at this time that conservation cover could be severely damaged by releasing livestock on the farms to utilize crop residue in the normal manner.

Miller pointed out that the main purpose of the feed grain program was to remove corn and grain sorghum land from crop production this year to help reduce the supply of feed grains. Grazing of the diverted acreages was not permitted after the close of the program sign-up in late May.

The period for keeping the land in a conserving use and out of production runs through the end of the year, but participants who normally would work or plant land this fall for 1962 crops may perform these usual activities on diverted acres under existing provisions.

Abstract Art Must Be Off Sidewalk

DETROIT (AP) — An abstract sculpture called "Bird in Flight" has been told to find another place to roost.

The sculpture now perches on the easement between the street and the sidewalk in front of an art gallery. Gallery owners William House and Ernest Aetakis were told it violates an ordinance.

House said he and Aetakis installed the sculpture to "add beauty to the city."

He said 1,000 people in the neighborhood had signed petitions urging the Common Council not to disturb the sculpture.

But the council said it must be moved.

3 Motors Of Nike Fire Successfully

White Sands Missile Range, N.M. (AP)—The Army successfully fired for the first time Thursday all three rocket motors of the Nike Zeus anti-missile missile.

The relatively small third stage reaction motor ignited as planned. The smaller motor serves two functions—maneuvering the warhead of the missile and propulsion.

The Zeus' main propulsion system—solid fuel booster and sustainer rocket motors—has been successfully fired many times.

Crimson Satan, late running winner of the Garden State, is by Spy Song—Papila. When the chestnut colt was foaled in 1959 both his parents were 16 years old.

He was accused of taking $20,343 in money paid by patients for board. Investigators said the shortage was found during an audit of the records 51 patients who stayed at the home from 1956 through 1959. Burns was superintendent of the home during that period.

Burns waived preliminary hearing and was freed on $2,500 bond. Earlier, he was convicted of embezzling $6,170 from the home in board payments. He was sentenced to 3 to 10 years in prison, fined $12,340 and ordered to make restitution.

The conviction has been appealed to the State Superior Court.

Say Many Alcoholic Among Executives

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"There are a great many alcoholics among corporation executives," according to Dr. Marvin A. Block, chairman of the American Medical Association's Committee on Alcoholism.

"The corporate structure is conducive to frustrations because only one man can be at the top at a time," Block told a news conference Thursday. "The two men below him aim at his job and the four below him aim at their jobs, and the eight below them aim at the jobs above and so on."

Block was here to speak before the United Mental Health Services' Council on Alcoholism.

PERMIT BANKS TO GIVE 4 PERCENT INTEREST

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's 13,000 commercial banks have been granted federal permission to offer savers 4 per cent interest on $93 billion of deposits starting Jan. 1.

The present limit is 3 per cent and has been in effect for five years.

The higher maximum was authorized Friday night by the Federal Reserve Board and Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. so that banks can become more competitive with savings and loan associations, which generally have paid higher rates.

Another motive for the move was to encourage foreigners and others to keep funds on deposit in the United States rather than move them abroad because of interest rate competition. This would help the U.S. balance of payments situation.

No bank will have to pay higher interest rates as a result of the action. They merely have permission to do so.

"Experience suggests that any moves toward higher rates are likely to be gradual," the Reserve Board said. Many banks have yet to adopt the old 3 per cent maximum.

The 4 per cent ceiling will apply to time and savings deposits left in banks for a year or longer. Funds deposited for 6 to 12 months can earn up to 3.5 per cent, instead of 3 per cent. There was no change in the maximum rates on deposits of shorter duration. The rates are 2.5 per cent for 90 days to six months, and 1 per cent for up to 90 days.

The maximum must not be exceeded by any commercial banks covered by FDIC insurance. This includes all except about 300 very small institutions.

FACES 33 NEW FRAUD COUNTS

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Cambria County Commissioner Frank Burns faces new embezzlement charges.

Already convicted of embezzling funds from the county, home, Burns was arrested Friday and charged on 33 new embezzlement counts.

He was accused of taking $20,343 in money paid by patients for board. Investigators said the shortage was found during an audit of the records 51 patients who stayed at the home from 1956 through 1959. Burns was superintendent of the home during that period.

Price Of Silver Rising; Britain Buys Yank Gold To Protect Sagging Pound

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Silver and gold—paper money and credit—the seesaw relationship of the U.S. dollar to the British pound and the Canadian dollar and the German mark and the Swiss franc.

These are all parts—and often confusing parts—of the big international monetary problem that the central bankers of the Western world are trying to solve.

Their aim is to achieve some stability in world currencies and world trade, to halt or minimize the spasmodic runs on the dollar or pound with an accompanying rush to buy and hoard gold, to keep trade between nations in better balance and thus promote the economic growth of all.

THREE RESULTS

The parts often confuse, even hide, the whole. Right now the headlines center on these items:

1. The proposed U.S. move away from silver as a backing for part of its currency. The first result is a big upward push in silver prices on the commodity market, with much fluctuation expected to follow.

2. Fresh losses of gold by the U.S. Treasury as Britain buys the metal with spare dollars to bolster Bank of England reserves and protect the pound, recently under

SEEK FEDERAL INJUNCTION TO STOP "RIDERS"

MCCOMB, Miss. (AP) — City officials planned today to seek a federal court injunction to prevent the arrival of more "Freedom Riders" after groups of white men attacked visiting newsmen.

Mayor C. H. Douglas announced the city's intention to enjoin the Congress of Racial Equality after six Freedom Riders successfully desegregated the Greyhound Bus Terminal Friday under heavy police protection.

In New Orleans, CORE said more trips were planned. No dates were given.

In Washington, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy congratulated Douglas and other city officials for maintaining law and order in this southwestern Mississippi city.

Douglas had promised to enforce the Interstate Commerce Commission's ruling, which bans segregated facilities in terminals used for interstate commerce and to keep order after an incident earlier in the week when a group of white persons beat five Negro Freedom Riders at the terminal.

Despite the increased police measures, an Associated Press photographer, two Life Magazine men and a Time Magazine man were attacked on McComb streets Friday.

A half-dozen youths surrounded AP photographer Ferd Kaufman after he had taken pictures of Negro Freedom Riders and asked him if he was "a nigger lover."

Others attacked

When Kaufman replied that he was "just trying to do a job," one of the youths grabbed and punched him. As Kaufman tried to break away, the man punched him on the head and behind the right ear, but Kaufman escaped to the office of the McComb Enterprise Journal.

Earlier four white men attacked Don Uhrbrock and Don Underwood of Life Magazine and Simmons Fentress of Time. Uhrbrock suffered a swollen lip when the men shoved him through a plate glass window.

When the Freedom Riders arrived, they found the terminal's restaurant closed but other sections of the one-story building open. After a few minutes in the terminal they left McComb.

20s, entered the bank about 2:40 p.m., and held four employees and three customers at gun point.

Karl M. Baily, executive vice president of the bank, quoted one of the bandits as saying: "Behave yourselves and you won't be harmed."

Baily said, "They didn't point the guns directly at me, but that wasn't necessary." "You could get the idea they were serious."

The pair forced three tellers to put money in a paper bag and then walked out of the bank into the town square. They were seen fleeing down an alley toward the rear of the building where police figure they met a third man in a get-away car.

Police set up roadblocks in the area but the thieves were not found.

attack because of its foreign trade deficit.

3. The drop of the Canadian dollar below 96 American cents for the first time in 10 years.

POLITICAL BACKFIRE

All of these are expected to have political repercussions here and abroad.

President Kennedy's proposal to demonetize silver entirely, except for coins, by substituting Federal Reserve notes for some $2 billion in paper money now backed by silver seems sure to stir up the embers of historic monetary disputes in Congress.

The loss of gold by the U.S. Treasury is linked to our balance of payment deficit. We are spending more dollars overseas than we are getting back. And efforts to remedy this is stirring up one of the biggest fights in years in Congress over tariffs. Should they be lowered in return for concessions abroad on American exports? Should they be raised to protect domestic industries from foreign imports?

INTERNATIONAL UNIT

Some experts are suggesting a solution to the many financial problems can be found in establishing an international monetary unit—whether as currency or as central bank credit—to handle exchange procedures, bolster any temporarily threatened national currency, and keep all on as even a keel as possible in this changing world.

But through all these problems there run strong threads of nationalism and national pride.

The chances are the immediate troubles will be trashed out in the upcoming session of the U.S. Congress, in the British House of Commons, in the capitals of the Western European trading bloc.

And all the while you'll be hearing a lot about gold and silver, about tariffs and trade deficits, about possible devaluations of this or that monetary unit, about the flow of short-term investment money from one trading center to another, about spurts of buying or selling of monetary metals in world markets.

Remembers Original Search For Earhart

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—A Warren County man participated in the original search for famed aviator Amelia Earhart in 1937.

Stephen Ostridge of Grand Valley was a member of the communications department aboard the USS Pennsylvania, which sailed from Pearl Harbor in search of Miss Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan.

An anthropological study currently is being conducted in California to determine if bones and teeth found on the island of Saipan are those of the two flyers, who disappeared while on a flight around the world.

Ostridge said his ship picked up all messages pertaining to the search in the Pacific and relayed them to smaller craft capable of landing at the hazardous islands.

"The men expressed great concern about the safety of Miss Earhart because of the strained relationship in the Pacific Theater at that time," Ostridge said.

Ostridge retired from the Navy in 1955 after 20 years of service.

Says Reds To Shoot Down Our Satellites

RUSTON, La. (AP)—A former German army guided missile expert says the "Russians will be able to intercept and shoot down our satellites within a few years, but we will not be able to shoot down theirs."

Dr. Walter Dornberger, former major general and commissioner for the German reich for all guided missiles, addressed the aerospace education symposium at Louisiana Tech Thursday night. He said he based his predictions on the Soviet rate of development as opposed to the American rate.

Dornberger, vice president and chief scientist for Bell Aerospace System Co., said the Soviet satellite program is advancing more rapidly than that of the United States.

SAY VICTORIA PLAY PRODUCED "BEAUTIFULLY"

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "Victoria Regina," Lawrence Housman's play that became Helen Hayes' greatest acting triumph, has been adapted into a 90-minute television drama. Shown Thursday night on NBC, it was a beautifully produced, meticulously performed series of vignettes about the great British queen from her accession as a young girl to widowed old age.

Perhaps the play suffered from the necessity of chopping it into bits to follow the rigid TV commercial form. Or perhaps—and this is most likely—the vital elements missing were Miss Hayes and Vincent Price, who originally played Prince Albert.

Miss Harris, certainly a most skillful actress, never really became Queen Victoria. She was all actress as a naive young girl, a jealous wife and a sorrowing widow, with skillful make-up aging from 18 to 78 over 90 minutes. She never was convincing as the great imperious queen, not even in the now famous quarrel with her husband.

REWARDING SHOW
Nevertheless, it was a rewarding and eye-filling broadcast. James Donald looked handsome and performed competently as Albert. But the TV version of contemporary classic proved again that it is almost impossible to remake satisfactorily a play which a great performer has made his own property. Comparison is inevitable, and inevitably the original stars get the best of it.

Sunday — "20th Century," CBS, 6-6:30 — "The Man Who Spied on Pearl Harbor," a memoir by a Japanese agent; Walt Disney show, NBC, 7:30-8:30 — "A Fire Called Jeremiah," about a forest fire and its fighters.

Wins 3 Races: Loses Payoff

DETROIT (AP) — A man called a Detroit bar and gave Norbert Palin the horses he wanted to bet. Palin wrote it down.

All three horses won and the payoff was worth more than $400. But the caller still lost, Palin, a policeman, was in the bar to arrest the owner, Damon Fender, 36.

Fender was convicted of engaging in an illegal occupation and released with a suspended sentence. Recorder's Court Judge John Ricca said he figured it would be a fitting punishment for Fender to have to explain to the caller why he won't collect.

80,540 ON PAYROLL
HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Lawrence's administration has released figures it contends prove that the Democrats have added only 12,827 people to the state payroll—not the 19,926 specified by Republicans.

No matter who is right about the 7,399-employee difference, records show, and Republicans agree, that there are now 80,540 persons employed in all phases of state government.

That figures out to one state employee for about every 141 man, woman and child in Pennsylvania. A small amount of baked ham left over? Dice it and add it to green peas that have been cooked with strips of onion and seasoned with salt, pepper and butter.

NO TRESPASSING

All persons are warned not to trespass on the premises of the undersigned with dog, gun or trap for the purpose of taking games in any manner or for fishing or any way injuring or destroying property. All persons violating the laws of the Commonwealth with regard to trespassing on land of the undersigned will be dealt with under the provision of the Act of June 24, 1939, P. L. 872, Section 954.

Old Fashion Yankee Humor

The Bob Newhart Show

By MARIE OLPE

WITH MORE and more sick sick comics infesting so many facets of the entertainment field today, it's most refreshing to see that the television industry is at least trying to clear the atmosphere. Down to earth good-old-fashion Yankee humor with a spicy tinge of the satirical flows over the air waves each Wednesday night 10:00-10:30 p.m., NBC-TV in the person of Bob Newhart on "The Bob Newhart Show."

It's wholesome humor, presented in classical style, by the fellow next door.

NBC's programming deserves a believed if you came within a dollar or two, you were doing all right."

Fortunately, he doesn't take the same attitude in the writing and developing of his routines.

WORKS FOR HOURS

"I've spent as much as a month on one monologue," Bob says. "Very often I may work for hours on end and then have to walk away from it."

It's easy to see from this why Bob is a comedian and not an accountant.

Bob owes a good deal of thanks to a discerning disc jockey in Chicago who became so en-the performance there's usually nothing to do but return to the hotel or motel all with the same lousy pictures," said the different satirist.

"It was my dislike of night club life plus NBC's coming through with an offer I couldn't refuse that sold me on the television series," Bob said with a smile.

"I've been promised no sponsor interference, and I've gotter an excellent time slot, following right after Perry Como," Bob continued.

SEEKS FRESH MATERIAL

Of course one major problem in doing a TV series such as Bob's is keeping pace from week to week with fresh, entertaining materials.

"I will not be able to write all my material as in the past, but a regular show will open up new areas for me. The shows will be built around me, not on me. We will be able to do sketches with great stars, etc.," Bob explained.

Roland Kibbee, who has worked on movies and at one time wrote for the late Fred Allen, is the chief writer on the show aside from Newhart.

Coast-To-Coast On TV

"BUGS BUNNY": Bugs assumes the name of "Allfat Hitchcock" and illustrates a lecture on crime with trilogy in "Prison to Prison" on "The Bugs Bunny Show" Tuesday, Dec. 5 (ABC-TV, 7:30-8:00 p.m., EST).

First Daffy Duck as "Sherlock Holmes" with Porky Pig as his assistant, "Dr. Swatson," prowls London searching for the "Shropshire Slasher." Next, Bugs pays tribute to "Mad Professors," and lastly, Bugs crosses carrots with jewel thieves Rocky and Mugsy.

Mel Blanc supplies the voices for the cartoon characters.

RUTH ROMAN GUESTS AS "MANKILLER" ON "THE UNTOUCHABLES": Eliot Ness meets Georgie, a woman shrewd enough to work her way into partnership in the Frank Nitti mob in "Mankiller" on "The Untouchables" Thursday, Dec. 7 (ABC-TV, 10-11 p.m., EST).

HIRSUTE HEAVY: Jack Elam, one of the busiest heavies on TV, takes another turn at a meanie role in "Shattered Idol," the Dec. 4 episode of "The Rifleman," when he picks a fight with Mark Twain (Kevin McCarthy).

"There are some advantages a playing the heavy," Elam pointed out. "You see, the producer wanted me to have some whiskers so I didn't have to shave before coming to work."

ON THE DARK SIDE: Grant Williams of "Hawaiian Eye" knows a pessimistic actor who can see only as far as the nearest calamity.

Robert Lansing, who guest stars on "Tall Man" over NBC-TV as Doc Holiday, whenever the script calls for it, was born Robert Howell Brown. When he embraced acting as a career he applied to Equity, the actor's union, for a card and was informed that they already had a Robert Brown on their rolls. Robert idly looked at a list of cities he was supposed to visit with a touring show and found places like Chicago, Pittsburgh and Cleveland. Getting into Michigan, he spotted the city of Lansing. The name sounded nice to him so he asked that the Equity card be made out to Robert Lansing, and he's worked professionally under that name ever since.

Mitch Miller's 15th "Sing Along" album will be a Christmas issue. His previous 14 albums have sold over the seven million mark in three and a half years.

BUSMAN'S HOLIDAY?

Pam Polifroni, casting director for "Day in Court," thoroughly enjoys her work.

"I even find myself casting persons I see on busses in parts," Pam confesses, "and often wonder how close I come."

"ALCOA PREMIERE"

Actress Shelley Winters has been signed to star in "The Cake Baker" on "Alcoa Premiere."

TENOR TRIES TERPSICHORE

Joe Feeney, popular Irish tenor on "Lawrence Welk Show," is stepping out these days. During rehearsal breaks, the singer is learning intricate dance steps from the show's new dancing couple, Barbara Boylan and Bobby Burgess.

ABC-TV emcees Jack Bailey, Jack Narz and Bob Clayton began their dramatic careers playing villains. Bailey played heavies in tent shows; Narz played 'em in the "Space Patrol" TV series and Clayton was the meanie in Jerry Lewis' movie, "The Bellboy."

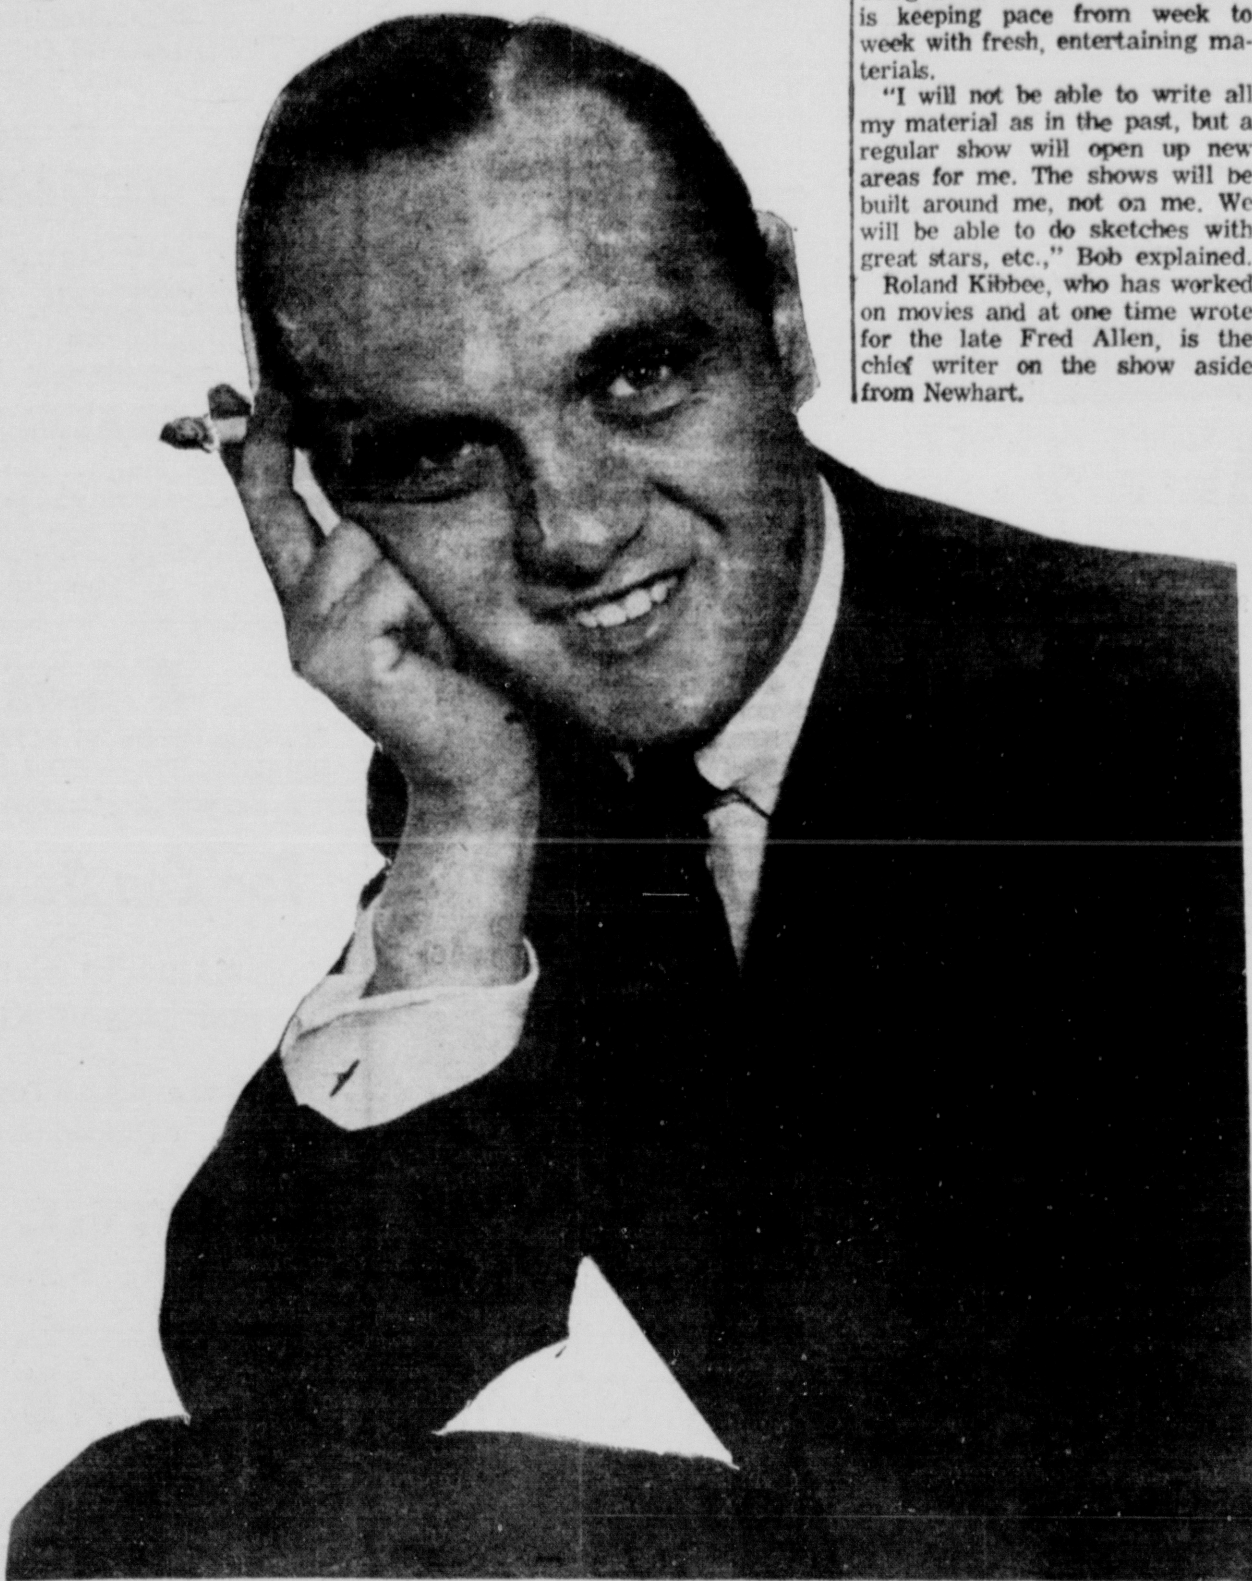

Johnny Carson, host of "Who Do You Trust," and "Make A Face" emcee Bob Clayton are skin diving enthusiasts.

Gene Kelly To Star In Series

Gene Kelly will make his debut as a regular television performer as the star of "Going My Way," a new, hour-long television series to be seen on the ABC Television Network next season.

The series, based on the fabulously successful 1944 Paramount movie which starred Bing Crosby and Barry Fitzgerald, will go into production early in 1962 and is scheduled to go on the air next October in prime evening time.

The series, a dramatic show with strong comedy overtones, will tell the story of a Catholic priest in New York, in his relations with his parishioners and with a Protestant minister who is his friend and counterpart.

Bob Newhart, TV's newest comedian to have his own show "The Bob Newhart Show" Wednesdays, 10-10:30 p.m. NBC-TV.

star this season for presenting two nice guys back to back. Following the Perry Como Show, Bob Newhart could not have been scheduled in a more ideal spot.

LARGE INCOME

Despite the fact he has been on the entertainment scene for less than three years, Bob's income by the end of this year should reach the quarter million mark. Pretty good for a guy who less than four years ago was discouragingly working away as an accountant — and a poor accountant at that he readily admits. It was his distaste for the job that motivated him to put extra efforts into his attempts to become an entertainer.

Now drawing on his unhappy experience as an accountant, we laugh with him as he explains, "That I know I could never get anywhere as an accountant for I thusiasm about Bob's material and delivery that he brought him to the attention of Warner Bros. Records. As a result, his first album was released in April of 1960. By the end of that year the album and its sequel "The Button Down Mind Strikes Back" reached best seller sales brackets.

He first drew national TV attention in 1960 when he appeared on the Emmy Awards program from Hollywood featuring two of recorded monologues.

URGED BY NBC

NBC had been after him to do a television series, but at first Bob was reluctant. A succession of night club dates, however, quickly changed his mind.

"Although I'm a bachelor waiting for the right girl to come along, night club life was not for me. There's no home life. After

Bob says his youngest sister is his best audience; his mother, the toughest. Now on network television, his family of admirers is countless.

Smoke-Jumpers Featured On TV

They fly through the air with the greatest of ease, but they land hard and face grim and dangerous work.

They are called smoke-jumpers, and their task is to reach a forest fire before it has a chance to spread.

A story based on one such jump, and its 10-day battle against a forest fire started by lightning, will be dramatized in "A Fire Called Jeremiah," on

"Walt Disney's Wonderful World of Color" Sunday, Dec. 3, NBC-TV 7:30-8:30 p.m., EST.

Smoke-jumpers are the airborne firefighters of the U. S. Forest Service. The idea originated in the 1920s but was not tested seriously until 1939, when equipment had been improved. Smoke-jumpers went into action officially a year later.

Smoke-jumpers are recruited each spring. A majority are college students. Forestry and medical students outnumber the others. Successful candidates are enrolled in a four-week training course.

The group started with 12 men in 1940. Today there are 360 smoke-jumpers. Last year each man made an average of 9.2 jumps, a total of 3,312 jumps, and 7,365 man-days fighting forest fires.

Food for Thought

By MARSHALL TUCKEY

In estimating food to be served for large gatherings here is a table to help you!—2 lbs. of coffee serves 50 to 60 people, 2 qts. gravy serves 40 people, medium size pie makes 8 pieces, 12" square cake cuts to 10-12 pieces.

Make your reservations early for your holiday parties.

Monoxide Fumes Kill Old Woman

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Carbon monoxide fumes have killed an 84-year-old Johnstown woman and hospitalized her 80-year-old brother.

The victim was Mrs. Anne Alters. Her brother, John Marquette, was in critical condition at Johnstown Memorial Hospital.

Firemen said they found the par Thursday in their Johnstown home where three unvented space heaters and a gas stove were burning.

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — Little Johnny Dougherty is dead of cancer, a month after his fifth birthday. The youngster, who died Thursday at his suburban Ridley Township home, had his life's desire fulfilled last June when citizens of the township arranged for him to visit the Philadelphia zoo.

Johnny, unable to walk after his leg was removed in an attempt to save his life, said the trip was the high point of his life. Surviving are his mother, a sister and four brothers. His father died in 1938.

Bing Crosby's Special Dec. 11

On the loose in London, Bing Crosby, with the assist of an all-British cast, sets out on a genealogical jaunt searching for sprigs doing an act with husband Steve Allen and his mother, Belle Montrose, at the Copacabana night club.

of the Crosby family tree. The story of the search, the encounters along the way and the final finding is told in "The Bing Crosby Show" Monday, December 11, ABC-TV 9-11 p.m., E.S.T.

The is the first of two Bing Crosby specials to be telecast this season.

On his odyssey, Bing is diverted, beguiled and bewitched by the comedy of Terry Thomas and Dave King, by the blues songs of Shirley Bassey, the ballads of Marion Ryan and the japes and roundelays of a buskers group,

The Wanderers.

It will be a wonderful Christmas Eve for Mel Blanc, the man of many voices, currently most familiar as the alter ego of Barney Rubble on "The Flintstones." Mel, confined to his bed for nearly a year following a near-fatal automobile crash, will make his first appearance on television with his old boss, Jack Benny, on December 24, a date he never expected to see when they carted him to the hospital more dead than alive.
